

Have you registered yet for the 11TH ASIAN & OCEANIAN EPILEPSY CONGRESS ?

The 11th Asian & Oceanian Epilepsy Congress (AOEC) is taking place from May 13th to 16th, 2016 in Hong Kong. With an exceptional scientific programme encompassing recent scientific, clinical and social developments in epilepsy and the vibrant city of Hong Kong as the backdrop, the 11th AOEC promises to offer every delegate a rewarding experience.

Special Registration Fees for one doctor who brings two trainees/AHPs

Take advantage of the special registration fee that allows you to bring two trainee doctors, allied health professionals or nurses with you to the 11th AOEC for the price of one.

Why Attend?

E-ducate yourself with the late medical innovations

P-resent an abstract on your epilepsy research

I-ntegrate and network with many colleagues from Asia, Oceania and beyond

L-earn about the most significant research developments in epilepsy across the region

E-xplore the incredible city of Hong Kong where its people and food complement its many marvels

P-eople you will want to meet - influential leaders from world leading epilepsy institutions

S-tudy the newest technologies in the biggest Exhibition Area to date

Y-ou can save money by registering now

To register and for further information on the 11th AOEC, please visit www.epilepsyhongkong2016.org or email hongkong@epilepsycongress.org

Hong Kong
2016

11th Asian &
Oceanian Epilepsy
Congress
13-16 May

